Entry-Level Prosecutors

Currently, we are not hiring prosecutors and have no hiring scheduled. We welcome your cover letter and résumé when we announce that we are hiring.

Law Students

Currently, we have no paid positions for law students. Keep checking this website for news on when we may be interviewing second-year law students for paid summer internship positions.

We interview law students from all over the country for volunteer positions. If you are interested in volunteering at least half time next summer, send us a letter of interest, résumé, and writing sample. We will also consider students who want to apply for public interest fellowships funded by their schools or other sources. Also, we have an active, year-round program for students who want to intern in our office and receive academic credit from their schools.

For law student and prosecutor positions contact:

Allied Legal Professionals

The City Attorney handles employment applications only for law students and attorneys. The City's Personnel Department handles applications for all other legal positions including legal assistants/paralegals, investigators, and legal secretaries. Employees in these allied legal positions, like most city employees, are in the civil service system. Law students and attorneys hired by the City Attorney are not in the civil service system. They are political appointees who serve as at-will employees. For information concerning any positions other than those for law students and attorneys, see the City's employment opportunity page.
